"Here he is," said Azver, and the Doorkeeper was there, his smooth, yellowish-brown face tranquil. All the rumors of Roke had said that it was spell-defended and charm-hidden, invisible to ordinary eyes. If there were any spells woven about that hill or the bay he now saw opening before it, they were gossamer to him, transparent. Nothing blurred his eyes or challenged his will as he flew over the bay, over the little town and a half-finished building on the slope above it, to the top of the high green hill. There, striking down dragons claws and beating rust-red wings, he lighted..Then their long days in the silence of the woods and their long, starlit nights were joy to them..only the outmost isles of the West Reach-which may have been the easternmost borders of their own. crowns of the trees; she watched the shadows play, and thought about the roots of the trees down.
